

RARE WINES

Cabernet Blend, Sassicaia, Tuscany, 2009 First produced in 1968, Sassicaia is now widely accepted as one of the worlds greatest Cabernet Sauvignon wines	795	Merlot Blend, Chateau Cheval Blanc, Saint-Emilion, Bordeaux, France, 2006 This warm and dry year was particularly favourable to Merlot. While it may not have the extraordinary concentration of 2005, 2006 Cheval Blanc is a rich, powerful wine with ripe fruit aromas and is already showing well	1450
Cabernet Blend, Harlan Estate, The Maiden, Napa Valley, 2009 The maiden represents the second selection from the estate. It is a highly detailed and sumptuous wine, remarkably faithful to the vineyards pedigree	795	Cabernet Blend, Promontory, Napa Valley, California, 2013 Another stunning Cabernet project from Bill Harlan. Due to the complexity of the soil, exposure and elevation, nearly 42 passes were made resulting in 30 distinct vinifications to make the 2013 vintage	1750
Cabernet Blend, Dominus, Napa Valley, California, 2016 When Bordeaux meets Napa, the Moueix did a fantastic job again in this incredible Napa vintage. Long, dense and yet defined	850	Cabernet Sauvignon, Chateau Latour, Medoc, Bordeaux, France 2009 One of the most monumental Latour's ever made, full bodied but fresh, with an exceptional long finish	2500
Merlot Blend, Chateau l'Evangile, Pomerol, Bordeaux, 2010 Rich and full mouth feel with the velvety tannins imaginable	950	Merlot, Petrus, Pomerol, Bordeaux 1986 Petrus is Pomerol's most important wine, medium to full bodied, velvety and rich	5750
Sauternes, Chateau Gilete, Crème de tete, Bordeaux, France 1970 A truly unique wine; 500 cases produced in a good year, aged for 20y in concrete tanks (without any oxygen influence), this is incredibly fresh and vibrant for its age. Only requirement is a bit of time to let it unfold in the glass	995	Cabernet Sauvignon, Screaming Eagle, Napa Valley 1997 This very rare legendary wine is not about power, its about elegance, refinement, pure fruit and rich, silky velvet drenched textures. Robert Parker described the 1997 vintage as the perfect wine, we're just lucky to have found some	9750
Pinot Noir, Claude Dugat, Charmes Chambertin Grand Cru, 2018 This grand cru combines power and excellence	1150
Cabernet Blend, Dominus, Napa Valley, California, 1997 First produced in 1983, this in now long been considered a benchmark producer in the region, 1997 might be a blockbuster vintage but the moueix are from Bordeaux and one can feel that touch	1050
Sauternes, Chateau d'Yquem, Bordeaux, France 2007 A library release from perhaps the most famous sweet wine producer in the world. 2007 is one of the great vintages from the estate. No pairing required here, only great company to share it with	1250
