

RARE WINES

Merlot Blend, Chateau l'Evangile, Pomerol, Bordeaux, 2010 650

Rich and full mouth feel with the velvety tannins imaginable

Pinot Noir, Claude Dugat, Charmes Chambertin Grand Cru, 2018 750

This grand cru combines power and excellence

Sauternes, Chateau Gilete, Crème de tete, Bordeaux, France 1970 795

A truly unique wine; 500 cases produced in a good year, aged for 20y in concrete tanks (without any oxygen influence), this is incredibly fresh and vibrant for its age.

Only requirement is a bit of time to let it unfold in the glass

Sauternes, Chateau d'Yquem, Bordeaux, France 2007 995

Merlot Blend, Chateau Cheval Blanc, Saint-Emilion, Bordeaux, France, 2006 995

This warm and dry year was particularly favourable to Merlot. While it may not have the extraordinary concentration of 2005, 2006 Cheval Blanc is a rich, powerful wine with ripe fruit aromas and is already showing well

Cabernet Blend, Promontory, Napa Valley, California, 2013 1750

Another stunning Cabernet project from Bill Harlan. Due to the complexity of the soil, exposure and elevation, nearly 42 passes were made resulting in 30 distinct vinifications to make the 2013 vintage

Cabernet Sauvignon, Chateau Latour, Medoc, Bordeaux, France 2009 2500

One of the most monumental Latour's ever made, full bodied but fresh, with an exceptional long finish

Merlot, Petrus, Pomerol, Bordeaux 1986 5750

Petrus is Pomerol's most important wine, medium to full bodied, velvety and rich

Cabernet Sauvignon, Screaming Eagle, Napa Valley 1997 9750

This very rare legendary wine is not about power, its about elegance, refinement, pure fruit and rich, silky velvet drenched textures. Robert Parker described the 1997 vintage as the perfect wine, we're just lucky to have found some
